23 years ago, we saw the face of deliberate and unspeakable evil when our nation was attacked by terrorists. On that day, and in the years since, we've also seen the character of everyday Americans who rose up to fight evil with compassion and selflessness, with courage and hope, and with grit and resilience.

The spirit of our people – of those who answered the call to serve and protect – is the greatest source of America's strength Today, we remember the thousands of innocent victims lost, share our thoughts and prayers with their families, and honor the men and women who risked and sacrificed their lives so others might survive.
